

Storm Recovery Update

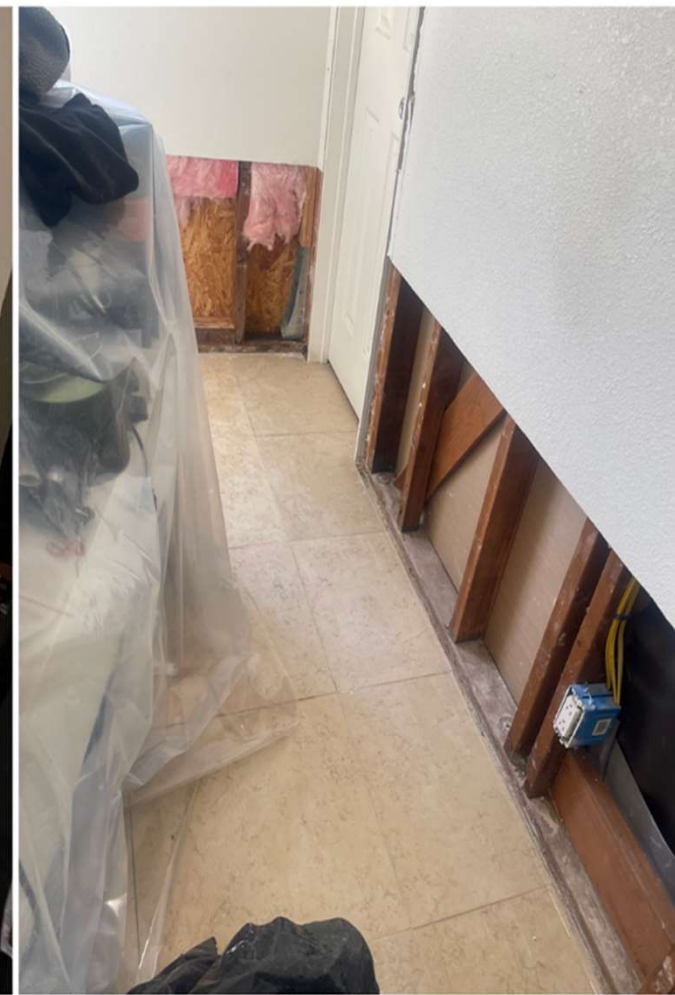

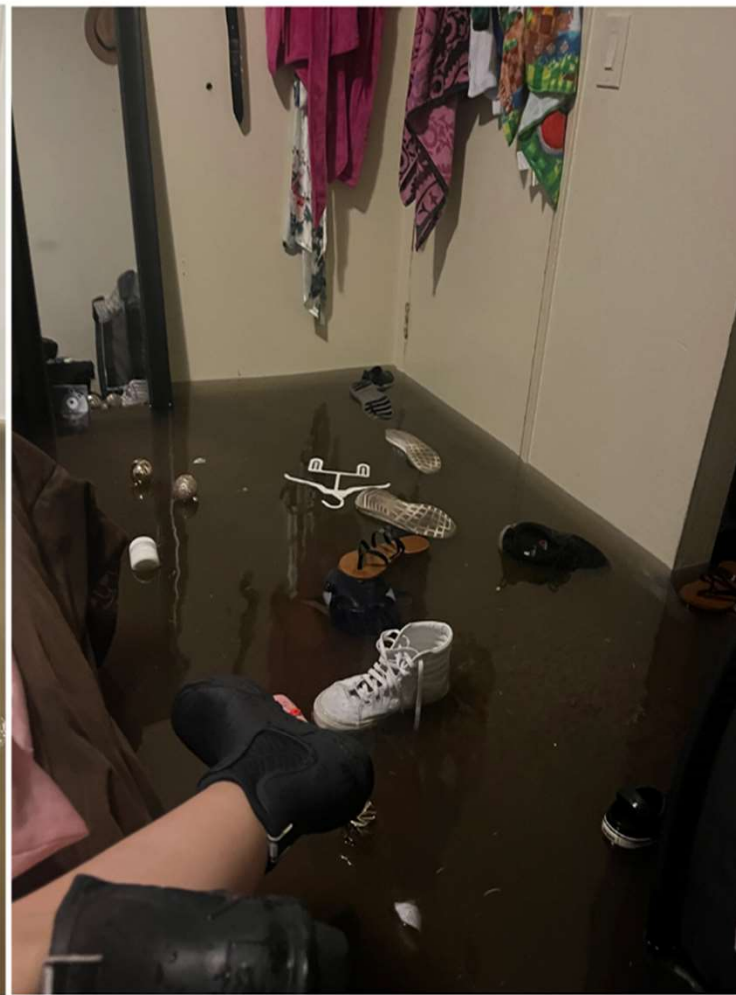

January 26, 2024

CITY OF PORT HUENEME

- On the morning of December 21, 2023, a severe storm hit Port Hueneme and Oxnard, resulting in more than 6 inches of rain total, and an extremely heavy rain at approximately 1:30 a.m. that resulted in 3 inches in an hour.
- Port Hueneme has not had this much rain in an hour in over 100 years – and the County has stated it's a once in 10,000 year storm.

TOTAL STRUCTURES IMPACTED

Category	Total
Destroyed	0
Major (Water Intrusion >18")	45
Minor (Water Intrusion 1"-17")	331
Affected (Debris & Exterior Damage)	46
Total:	422 Structures

TOTAL VEHICLES DAMAGED

City	Total
Oxnard	379
Port Hueneme	265
Total:	644 Vehicles

DAMAGE TO PUBLIC FACILITIES

CITY OF PORT HUENEME

- More than $2 million in damage is estimated to City facilities and vehicles, including our Library, which is currently closed for repairs.

PORT OF HUENEME

- Millions of dollars of damage was caused to various facilities at the Port of Hueneme.